

LIFTING YOUR INDUSTRY

LIFTING YOUR ORGANISATION

LIFTING YOU

ADVOCACY

WMAA represents your industry and you, promoting the essential services the waste and resource recovery industry provides.

- WMAA engages with Ministers, department heads and senior regulators in state and federal agencies
- WMAA provides Member only briefings
- WMAA drafts submissions to federal and state governments with member input
- WMAA participates in policy forums
- WMAA participates in government events
- WMAA engages media to lift the profile of the industry

KNOWLEDGE

With over 2000 Members, WMAA is recognised as the hub for information in the waste and resource recovery industry.

- WMAA delivers eNEWS monthly to Members email address
- Members receive a complimentary copy of Inside Waste
- Members have access to join Working Groups
- Members have access to the WMAA Web Portal – Submissions, policy papers, conference presentations
- Members have access to ISWA research articles
- Members have access to seminars and workshops

EVENTS

WMAA runs industry leading events for environment, landfill, and energy from waste, as well as state based conferences, providing the latest insights and networking

- National Conferences: Enviro Convention, Australia Landfill & Transfer Stations, Energy from Waste
- State based conferences
- State based seminars

SUPPORT

WMAA offers our members exclusive access to products and discounts to support your business.

- Discounted access to WMAA Events
- Discounted advertising rates in WMAA publications
- Access to tailored insurance products
- Discounted advertising rates in the WMAA Career Centre.
- Discounted exhibition booths at WMAA events.